

"We are dedicated to helping our clients thrive in the ever-changing world of technology"

About Us

ADCOTECH Business Solutions Limited is a team of proficient information technology professionals with qualified years of experience and expertise in different disciplines of IT to positively contribute to your organization's bottom line.

Our company was founded in November 2011 and then incorporated in January 2015. We saw that the ever changing field of information technology in the marketplace was becoming more and more advanced while access to IT products and experienced IT professionals became more difficult.
